The following Brigades will be going on campaign this summer: 1st, 3rd & 4th
Orders for Summer 1615 are due by Wed. Sept. 14, 1983

Rules Additions, Deletions, Clarifications and Modifications:

1. Promotions may not be refused
2. Characters who hold the rank of Brigadeer General or above MAY assume command of any unit which they formerly commanded to volunteer them to go on campaign. He need not accompany it on campaign but, if he does so the chain of command is bumped down one notch. No one may volunteer a unit larger than a brigade, on'- the Minister of State may decide what forces will go on campaign and that onl in summer.

IMPORTANT: Because I find that I am increasingly adding rules to accomidate the format rather than the game, therefore I am considering changing the format as follows: to eliminate the printing of each character's orders and simply calculating the results and presenting them as above. This would eliminate the opportuni for the players to conduct their own duels and they will need to anticipate where influence will be needed. So that the players will have time to communicate with each other, the statistics would appear every other Zine with only occasional items for Le Gossipe Parisienne appearing in the alternate Zines. This would allow me to change the deadline to give myself a week to prepare En Garde! which, now that I am typing the stencils myself, would be a great help and also will give us more room in the Zine for the ever increasing number of games so that we do not have to raise the subscription fees and can still send the entire Zine to all subscribers. Please let me knpw your feeling on this. If there is overwhelming reaction against this proposal I will continue to conduct the game as I have in the past. Otherwise I will institute the new format for the Autumn 1615 turn.

ALSO IMPORTANT: If I have no dueling orders and receive not duel results any character who has an encounter that should result in a duel will be considered to have backed down. If both parties fall into that category then they will be considered to have seen each other and have been seen to be attempting to hide from the other, both losing status in the process. It is up to the players to be aware of situations which would require a duel and act accordinly as, no doubt, Messrs. deLampalle and Matusse have discovered to their chagrin.

Le Gossipe Parisienne

DOLOKHOV KILLED...deLAMPALLE BECOMES CoPS...JARDIN'S PARTY GREAT SUCCESS (GP):
The Italians were held at bay along the frontier this season but the illustrious M. Dolokhov was killed when the rest of his regiment left him to face the enemy alone. Unfortunately the assault against Capri went poorly. It appears that the army was only interested in securing the beaches and while they were regrouping and breaking out the suntan lotion, the enemy launched a counterattack that swept them from the island.

Meanwhile back in Paris M. deLampalle was appointed Commissioner of Public Safety and immediately announced his intention to arrest M. Dolokhov. It is said that he was dissappointed that the Italians killed him before he was able to have him hung. M. Jardin's party was well attended but as many of the brigades that had been expected to be on campaign at the time didn't leave for the front until later in the season, there was a larger turnout than was expected and many who had expected to be lavishly entertained found barely enough to go around. The Crown Prince was somewhat appeased when the entire regiment of the Crown Prince Cuirresiers, led by M. Jardin sang the regimental song and offered up a toast to their namesake. It is said that the Crown Prince wondered aloud why it was that the Lt. Colonel of the regiment offered the toast rather than the Colonel, who was also present.It appears that both M. Lafayette and M. Van Rijn are especially chagrined by the death of M. Dolokhov as the deceased owed the former 500 crowns and the latter 1000 crowns. Also at the party M. Frontenac of the Cardinal's Guard insulted and offered satisfaction to both M. deLampalle and M. Matusse of the King's Musketeers but both claimed to have pressing business elsewhere and declined amid the hoots and jeers of several witnesses. As a result of the incident M. deLampalle was unable to raise his position in society as he had expected this season. The incident did not seem to affect M. Matusse as greatly as he somewhat redeemed himself by being wounded and receiving the Croix de Guerre during the campaign. He was not titled however nor was M. deLampalle when he gained his new office. M. Bic was the only one to receive that honor this season. As reported earlier, the King's Musketeers were somewhat incapacitated during the 1st week of April which may have accounted for Mlle. Giselle's rejection of M. deLampalle in that week after having prevoiously accepting his court and then returning to the unfortunate Dolokhov. The Minister of State was unable to convince the King to reduce taxes.

By Gad, der treasury ist almost kaput und da Koenig has even doubled der taxes und der peasants are almost revolting so ve ist goink to be responsible und not havin' der big grossekrieg boom boom dis time around. Ve goink to save some money
